

Solidarity Action for the Istanbul10

25.10.2017, 9.00 a.m. CET

Suggestion for introductory words:

On 5th July 2017, eight Turkish Human Rights Defenders and their two international trainers Ali Gharavi and Peter Steudtner were arrested near Istanbul. Today, now at 9:00 a.m. CET, the trial against the Istanbul10 for alleged support of terrorist organisations begins.

In solidarity with the Human Rights Defenders who are wrongly imprisoned, I stand up for human rights, and want to read an article from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Central Part of the Action:

Read out an article of your choice of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and possibly visualise it with a print-out.

Suggestion for Closing Words:

We demand:

Freedom for the Istanbul 10!

Drop the charges against them!

Protect human rights – in Turkey and everywhere!

Further Note:

A photo or video of the action is very welcome – please send it to istanbul10@kurviewustrow.org with a reference to name and place!

We will put a selection of the photos on the campaign website and will let the prisoners know about the solidarity actions for them.
